VOLUME CVI.---NO. 5. ALEXANDRIA, VA., FRIDAY EVENING, JANUARY 6, 1905. PRICE 2 CENTS.

When life's autumn comes, women, worn out by the burdens of motherhood, yet shrink from that second "change of life" which will banish these burdens forever. They fear a change in form, in feature, in personal attractiveness. Such fears are largely warranted by the effects which this change produces in many women. But no woman need let these fears fret her.

Those who have used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription do not suffer from the change of life either in face, form or feelings as do other women. This fact is due to the intimate connection of the general health with the health of the organs peculiarly feminine. By preserving the health of these organs, and relieving the system from the debilitating drains, ulcers and inflammations which sap its health, "Favorite Prescription" paves the way for this natural change to come in Nature's way, without the loss of capacity to please others or personal inability to enjoy life.

"Your 'Favorite Prescription' brought me safely through that difficult period, called 'change of life,'" writes Mrs. Mary Ensminger, of 344 E. Ankeny St., Portland, Oregon. "This change made a very unpleasant disturbance through my entire system. I had hot and cold flashes, sick headaches, became excited, flustrated, nervous and irritable. My appetite was fitful and for days I was unable to eat a fair meal. My aunt recommended me to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and it made a great change for the better. Within two weeks the unpleasant feelings had disappeared. I have a husband and eight children so have the care of a large family but was able to attend to my household duties without any difficulty and passed the period without any more trouble. I can recommend your 'Favorite Prescription' as a grand medicine for women."

You may be willing that somebody else shall say that their baby is "just as good" as yours, but you don't want that baby substituted for yours. Let dealers say what they like about other medicines being "just as good" but don't let them substitute anything for "Favorite Prescription." It is absolutely unequaled.

APPEARING OLD

Acts as a Bar to Profitable Employment.

You cannot afford to grow old.

In these days of strenuous competition it is necessary to maintain, as long as possible ones youthful appearance.

It is impossible to do this without retaining a luxurious growth of hair.

The presence of Dandruff indicates the presence of a burrowing germ which lives and thrives on the roots of the hair until it causes total baldness.

Newbro's Herpicide is the only known destroyer of this pest, and it is as effective as it is delightful to use

Herpicide makes an elegant hair dressing as well as Dandruff cure.

Accept no substitute—there is none.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

THRILLING EXPERIENCES AT SEA.

Compelled to lash themselves to the masts, and later cut their way through the ice on deck, for three days, while terrific gales threatened to send them to the bottom, is the terrible experience of the crew of the Norwegian steamer Ceylon, which arrived at Philadelphia yesterday from Newfoundland. The vessel when she arrived bore many evidences of her hard battle with the elements. Boats and rails were smashed to kindling wood, and her cabin was badly damaged, and her iceladen deck and rigging showed how severe had been the winter blasts she had encountered. The vessel is commanded by Captain Johansen. He reports that on December 24 and 25 the Ceylon ran into a series of heavy gales, which made their voyage extremely perilous, and caused the crew much suffering. Icy sleet and snow covered the vessel and interfered seriously with the outlook, compelling the steamer to proceed with great caution, while winds of almost hurricane proportions lashed the sea into a fury and held the vessel at their mercy. When Christmas Day dawned, instead of enjoying the festival the suffering men were compelled to labor for their lives. Progress on deck was almost impossible, and those who were compelled by their duties to be on deck lashed themselves to the masts and rigging, and saw their boats crunched like chips while they were helpless. Wave after wave dashed over the decks, only to freeze as they fell, and when the storm finally abated, so thickly coated was the vessel that it was necessary for the worn-out seamen to cut away the ice with axes. Three whole days were spent thus, and tons of ice thrown overboard before the vessel was again under full control of Captain Johansen and his men. When the storms had abated, such temporary repairs as were possible were made, and the Ceylon ended her journey without further mishap.

Of all the remarkable tales of suffering on the seas nothing excels that brought on the North German Lloyd steamer Koln yesterday by Capt. William Yetman, of the Nova Scotian schooner Harold, who, with a crew of five men, were snatched from the very jaws of death by a heroic volunteer crew of life-savers from the steamer. Had the rescue been deferred 12 hours the men would have perished, as there is no reasonable doubt that the water logged Harold went to the bottom in a terrific storm that followed shortly after the schooners crew had been placed in safety on the steamer's deck. Struck by a waterspout while lying to in a gale the schooner was wrenched almost under, and would have sunk instantly but for the resourcefulness of her crew. With tarpaulins over her splintered bow and a huge chain cable hove around her the vessel was held together enough to float by the incessant work at the pumps by the men. For 17 days they thus struggled with death as the penalty of a let up; and, during that time not a morsel had they to eat but some moudly ship biscuit and some wine found in the captain's cabin, for the great wall of water that almost wiped them out stripped the deck clear of everything, including the galley and the provisions. And yet through all this terrible experience not a life was lost but a pet dog, and he died by being crushed between the sides of the derelict and the lifeboat while being transferred.

Czar Warned by Kaiser.

A curious illustration of the Czar's inaccessibility to counsel was mentioned to a newspaper correspondent in Vienna yesterday in a quarter which cannot be suspected of Germanopilism. Some ten days before the outbreak of the war in the far East the German Emperor, alarmed by the information received concerning the respective strength and degree of preparedness of the Russian and Japanese forces, telegraphed to the Czar in approximately the following terms:

"I beg of you to reflect before engaging in a war with Japan. From very precise information which I have received concerning the forces of which Japan can dispose, the state of her preparations, and also the forces of which you can dispose and maintain in Manchuria, I have doubts about the result of a war. I beg of you, therefore, to think well before definitely refusing the Japanese conditions."

To this appeal the Czar is said to have replied that the Japanese conditions had not been refused, but that "in any case all necessary measures already have been taken to assure the triumph of our arms."

Nogi's Prisoners.

According to General Nogi's latest reports it appears that General Stoessel, instead of having "a mere handful" of men and nearly all his officers killed or disabled, the force he has handed over to the Japanese numbers 48,000, including some 15,000 sick and wounded. General Nogi also finds at the surrendered garrison 8 generals, 3 admirals, 57 colonels and majors, 151 captains and commanders and 700 to 800 other military and naval officers. Numbers of volunteers are included in the 4,000 non-combatants.

It is reported that large bodies of Russian troops are arriving in northeastern Korea, with the evident intention of moving into Manchuria with the object of attacking the Japanese right and rear at the Shakhe.

The Japanese are concentrating around Bensihu, 30 miles northeast of Liaoyang, and there are indications of a movement against the Russian right.

Abattoir Changes Hands.

The Washington Albattoir, which was built more than 10 years ago by a stock company in which Baltimore, Philadelphia and Washington capital was interested, was yesterday transferred by the Abattoir Company to Andreas Loeffler, Michael A. Keane, and Nicholas Auth, as trustees, for a stated consideration of $37,500. These gentlemen represent the T. P. Keane Company, the A. Loffler Sausage Product Company and the M. Auth Produce Company, which will in the future use the abattoir property jointly. The sale is the outcome of a meeting of the stockholders late in December. Under the terms of the transfer the purchasers, have taken up a second mortgage of $12,500, which would have fallen due on April 1, and agree to take up another mortgage of 25,000, which will be due in four years.

Night Was Her Terror.

"I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs Chas. Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but when all other medicines failed, three $1 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 55 pounds." It's absolutely guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Bronchitis and all Throat and Lung Troubles. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottle free at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

FRIDAY EVENING, JAN. 6, 1905.

GOVERNOR DOUGLAS, of Massachusetts, sent his first message to the legislature yesterday. He has the following to say regarding present conditions at Fall River:

It seems beyond belief that in these enlightened twentieth century days after all the study and experiments of our best minds, it should be possible for us to look upon such an appalling spectacle as the present situation in Fall River. Nations have met and solved vexed problems by arbitration; magnificent temples are being constructed where world powers may meet and settle their differences. Yet here, in Massachusetts—the citadel of wealth, culture, refinement and progressive liberty—is presented the melancholy sight of our women and children being fed from soup houses and sent to bed scantly clad in fireless homes. I can not attempt to dissect the causes leading up to this condition, but it is sufficient for us to know that it exists. If it be possible in the deliberations of your bodies to formulate a remedy for existing conditions and prevent their recurrence, humanity will not have labored in vain.

During the Christmas holidays attention was called to the fact that instead of being in the enjoyment of the customary blessings of the season, thousands of residents of Fall River were huddled in cold and cheerless houses, the result of the prolonged strike. Governor Douglas began life at the lower rung of the ladder—on a shoe bench. He by observation and experience is acquainted with "the short and simple annals of the poor," and his first message deals with conditions he would rejoice to see eliminated.

A TIDE OF disaster seems to have set in against Russia, and at present there are no indications of a speedy turn. Dispatches from Port Arthur report that the Japanese have captured with that stronghold 48,000 prisoners, including about 1,000 officers. It is also stated that some of the ships damaged by the Russians and the Japanese shells can be raised and made serviceable to the victors. In the train of these misfortunes a dispatch from St. Petersburg gives circulation to a report that Admiral Rojestvensky's flagship has been sunk by striking a rock. In the face of such wholesale disasters, the revolutionary movement in the Czar's realms is becoming more pronounced daily, and the agitators are taking every advantage of the government's embarrassment. The officials are rendered desperate by such conditions and are wreaking vengeance upon newspapers which have the temerity to voice the will of a large percentage of the people of Russia. The country is passing through a trying ordeal and many grave forecasts are being made of the final outcome. It is said in some quarters that the Czar will be compelled to make overtures of peace in order to stem the internal dissensions which are gathering force daily.

A PARAGRAPH in yesterday's Washington correspondence of the Gazette stated that it was understood that after the Senate has confirmed the nomination of the colored man Crum to be collector of the port of Charleston, S. C., the latter will resign to make way for a white man of President Roosevelt's own choice. If this be so Mr. Roosevelt is more reprehensible for forcing a colored official upon the people of Charleston than was even at first supposed, for it would show that he has humiliated them simply because he has the power to do so, and poses as being averse to race distinction in the South which he terms "mere sentiment."

A REPORT received at Tokio yesterday from General Nogi's headquarters largely increases the figures of the surrendered garrison, and intimates that the force handed over to the Japanese at Port Arthur will be 32,000, exclusive of 15,000 or 16,000 sick and wounded, making a rough total of 48,000. This makes more men surrendered than were in the garrison eleven months ago when the siege commenced and makes no allowance whatever for the thousands of Russians reported by the Japanese to have been killed during the siege. But the Japanese are great jugglers—with figures as well as with other things.

The merchant Marine Commission deals sternly in its report with the United States Steel Corporation for selling its products cheaper to British shipbuilders than to Americans. But, says the Philadelphia Record this is our protective system; it is an essential feature of protection; German steel interests as well as our own get high prices from their fellow-countrymen by means of the tariff, and then use the extortionate profits made at home to balance the small profits made by selling to foreigners at much lower prices.

A FEE of $200,000 for James Smith, jr., for acting as receiver for the United States Shipbuilding Company, was asked of Judge Lanning, of Newark, N. J., Wednesday, in the United States District Court. When property is put in the hands of a receiver, nowadays, the creditors receives but little of what they are justly entitled.

MR. ADAMS, of Pennsylvania, yesterday introduced a bill in the House of Representatives providing for the establishment in the District of Columbia of a whipping post for wife-beaters. Should the bill be amended so as to punish petty thieves and then be passed into a law crime in Washington would be reduced by one half.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., Jan. 6.

Economy, tariff revision and railroad legislation will be the subjects of discussion at the conference of republican leaders in Congress, to be held with the President tomorrow afternoon. The President is known to favor the outlined naval programme and wants reductions all along the line, excepting naval construction alone. Others who favor the exercise of the strictest economy, desire to apply it to naval affairs also. There are members of the House, whose districts need river and harbor improvements and new public buildings, who are desirous of chiselling the requisite amounts out of the naval appropriation bill. It is understood that the President, although calling these men for the purpose of considering economy in appropriations, will bring up the questions of tariff provision and railroad legislation at the same time. President Roosevelt has not changed in his belief that tariff revision is a necessity; he is still convinced that an extra session ought to be called; he will ask for advice from those men as to the proper time for calling the session. Most of the leaders are opposed to an extra session. Those who are not are divided as to whether it should be called in the spring or fall As to railroad legislation the President has declared himself in favor of legislation prohibiting rebates and granting to the Interstate Commerce Commission the right to regulate rates, under certain restrictions. He wants legislation of this character at this session if it can be had. If not, he will renew his recommendations to the next Congress, and if an extra session should be called, the subject may be considered even in advance of the regular date of convening next December. Congressional circles are greatly agitated by the call for tomorrow's conference. It is expected to result in the adoption of a broad and important policy of retrenchment if nothing more.

Oratorical fireworks will be in evidence Tuesday when Representative Bourk Cockran, of New York, will be heard by the House committee on the election of the President and members of Congress in support of his resolution for a congressional investigation of the methods used in collecting campaign funds by the two great political parties and the use to which the funds were put. Mr. Cockran's resolution will come before the House during this session most likely on a motion of the republican majority of the elections committee that it be tabled. The New York member intends to deliver his principal speech on his resolution when it is before the House.

Conrad H. Syme, counsel for August W. Machen, Dr. George E. Lorenz, of Toledo, Diller B. and Samuel W. A desperate effort was made to wreck the B. & O. express train known as No. 7 passenger, between New York and Chicago, at Underwood, W. Va., on the main line of the B. & O. yesterday. A spike was driven in the switch, and it took 20 minutes to remove it. The attempted outrage was averted by the sharp eye of a trackman, who waved his flag, undoubtedly saving 200 persons from death or injury. Had the train gone through at the regular rate of speed it would have plunged over the mountain side. Other attempts to wreck passenger trains have been made in the same vicinity recently.

FLAGSHIP REPORTED LOST.

The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Paris edition of the New York Herald telegraphs that Vice Admiral Rojestvensky's flagship, the battleship Kniaz Souvaroff, has struck a rock and foundered.

The latest report from Vice Admiral Rojestvensky's squadron was contained in a dispatch dated Tamatave, Island of Madagascar, January 2, in which it was stated that the Vice Admiral's division of the Russian second Pacific squadron, consisting of five battleships, three cruisers, two transports and a hospital ship, had anchored on that day in the roadstead of Sainte Marie, an island on the east coast.

Advices from St. Petersburg Thursday were to the effect that orders had been issued for the second Pacific squadron to return to European waters. It is suggested that the Russian Admiralty then had news of the disaster to Rojestvensky's flagship, but withheld the information from the public owing to the excited state of mind over the surrender of Port Arthur.

The battleship Kniaz Souvaroff was built at St. Petersburg in 1902 and was of 13,516 tons displacement. Her length was 367½ feet, her beam 76 feet, her draught 26 feet, and indicated horsepower 16,000. Her armament was of the Russian Krupp pattern and consisted of four 12-inch, 12 six-inch, 20 three-inch, 20 three-pounder and 6 one-pounder guns. She had six torpedo tubes. Her complement of men was 740.

S. Senator, 100 members of the house of delegates, and twenty members of the senate from the odd districts, to serve two years each. Raced Across the Ocean.

After nine days of sailing in close company across the Atlantic Ocean, the steamers Graf Waldersee, of the Hamburg-American Line, and the Cassel, of the North German Lloyd line, arrived at New York yesterday with the Graf Waldersee leading by but two hours. The two ships came out of the English Channel December 26 in company, and during the entire passage were never more than five miles apart. First one and then the other would take the lead, until they had changed positions half a dozen times. Part of the time they steamed side by side, with passengers shouting messages across by megaphone. The Cassel was in the lead on Tuesday night, when the blizzard struck the ships and both reduced their speed. During the gale of that night and the following morning the Graf Waldersee crept ahead and reached Sandy Hook bar two hours before the Cassel did. The ships docked not more than half an hour apart. Capt. A. Krech, of the Graf Waldersee, said that in the 38 years of his sea service he had never seen or heard of so remarkable a contest. "You hear of ocean liners steaming side by side for a few hours and being in sight of each other for perhaps two days," said the Captain "but a race of this kind, where two big boats pass each other four times on the way across and are for 10 days within signaling distance is, I believe, absolutely unprecedented."

Watson Found Guilty.

James M. A. Watson, jr., a clerk in the office of former Auditor Petty, of the District, of Columbia, on trial in the Criminal Court in Washington on the charge of having embezzled about $73,000 of the funds of the auditor, yesterday was found guilty on two indictments alleging embezzlements of $12,826. The total amount he is accused of having misappropriated is $73,000.

All of yesterday's session, save about five minutes, was consumed in the arguments of counsel over technical points in the case, in the final arguments before the jury, and in the charge delivered by Justice Wright. The case was given to the jury at 3:10 o'clock in the afternoon, and an hour and five minutes later the twelve men filed into the box and delivered their finding; namely, that Watson was guilty as indicted. During the final brief scene the defendant remained standing, and it was evident that he had nerved himself to hear the worst, for he passed through the ordeal without changing expression. Attorney D. W. Baker, for the defense, requested Justice Wright to order the defendant's commitment to jail pending the filing of motions for new trial and arrest of judgment. The customary order was given.

Mrs. Watson, who sat beside her husband until the judge had charged the jury, was not in the courtroom when the verdict was rendered.

Admiral Yessen has been appointed to command the cruiser division of the Russian Pacific squadron. The fact that Skrydloff has been made a member of the council, and also that Yessen has been put in command of the division formerly held by the Vice Admiral, would indicate that Skrydloff has been permanently withdrawn from active work.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 6.—The mobilization by western provinces is proving most unsuccessful. Thousands are evading the summons to arms. Out of one thousand summoned in one district only 300 appeared. The same proportion holds true to other centers. Of 3,000 Jews in one Polish district 2,937 failed to put in an appearance and the remainder had to be driven to the point of mobilization by Cossacks.

Electric Cars in Accident.

New York, Jan. 6.—Cyrus W. Metz, an electrician, was killed and eight passengers more or less seriously injured shortly before 6 o'clock this morning by a rear end collision on the Ninth avenue elevated railway at Horatio and Greenwich streets. Three of the passengers are seriously hurt. There were three trains in collision. A southbound train had just reached Horatio street when suddenly the fuse blew out. The electrician climbed under the train to fix the fuse of the last car. While the train was stalled, a second train coming around the curve on the road at this point narrowly avoided crashing into the rear end of the train stalled. The flagman of the second train neglected to go back, and flag other trains. A few minutes later a third train, going at a good rate, whirled around the curve, and smashed into the last car of the second train, sending the other two together, with a crash and crushing the life out of the electrician under the fourth car of the first train. The force of the compact broke a number of windows in all three trains and tore away two of the platforms. The passengers who were injured were cut by flying glass and bruised That a greater number were not injured was due to the fact that few were traveling on the road at the time.

Serious Railroad Accident.

Cumberland, Md., Jan. 6.—A freight wreck occurred this morning at Glencoe, sixty miles west of here, on the Pittsburg division of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, and the entire crew of five men is reported killed. There were forty-four cars derailed. Baltimore and Ohio officials here refuse to give details, stating that they have been instructed to cease giving out information to the press. The wreck is reported most disastrous from a financial standpoint, aside from the loss of life. The tracks are blocked and traffic tied up.

Additional details concerning the wreck have been received. In Sandpatch tunnel an air hose broke and Wood and his firemen went back into the tunnel to repair the break. The fireman was overcome by gas and Engineer Wood carried him to the engine and uncoupled, hauling him out to a place of safety. Then he started in after the train. He heard the train coming toward him, and reversed and ran. The train constantly gained speed, following, and Wood, seeing this, left the engine. The train struct the engine, but did not wreck it, and continued on ten miles down a steep grade. At the Manila telegraph station the crew unhooked the caboose and sent word ahead that the train was a runaway. At Glencoe, on a curve, a car left the track, and the wreck followed. Every car was demolished. A report here says that four of the dead are Italian laborers. The track will not be cleared for twenty-hours. The Duquesne limed, westbound, had passed only three minutes before the week. In the gauntlet at Sandpatch a terrible wreck might have happened.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Jan. 6.—The stock market in general was rather dull and languid this morning, and the trading element was inclined to work for something of a reaction. It was only in special issues that animation was to be noted, The advance in New York Central was interrupted by realizations. In the industrial list Amalgamated Copper rose ¾, but lost the gain. The Steel stocks were only steady. The market at the beginning of the second hour was heavy but without important selling pressure.

Execution of a Murderer.

Richmond, Va., Jan. 6.—James Goode, colored, who shot and killed Inspector Shinberger on June 29th last, was hanged for the crime in the jail here today. Goode was the coolest and nerviest man in the jail at the time of the execution, and walked with a firm step to the scaffold. He was baptized a short time before the drop fell, only the few people allowed by law newspaper men, physicians, witnessing the hanging. When Inspector Shinberger was shot he was in command of a squad which went to the house to capture Goode, who, a week previous, had shot and instantly killed Richard Fox, another negro. For that crime Goode took refuge in the house where Shinberger attempted to capture him. He attempted to escape from there by firing on the inspector who was standing in a rear gate, one of the shots taking effect in the officer's stomach, from which he died. The fugitive again escaped, but was captured three days later.

Destructive Fire.

Springfield, Mass., Jan. 6.—At one o'clock this afternoon fire started in a booth in a food fair now being held in the City Hall, and in less than 20 minutes the entire structure was gutted. The fire is spreading to adjoining structures including Gilmore's Hotel, Gilmore's Theatre, and the large department store of Smith & Murray. The City Hall was a large building occupying one half of an entire block.

At 1:45 the fire was under control, and the damage to the adjoining building on Main street, extending from Court to Pynchon streets, was not great. Many valuable records in the city hall were destroyed, but those in the office of the city clerk was saved. The loss will exceed $100,000.

HOUSE.

In the House today, it was agreed to adjourn over until Monday at the close of todays session.

After disposing of some minor matters the House went into committee of the whole for the consideration of the fortification appropriation bill.

Mr. Littauer said that the large appropriation asked for gun sights and finders, was absolutely necessary, for gun fire was worthless without finders. Urging large appropriations for submarine mines, he said that only two battleships at Port Arthur had been sunk by gun fire while seven battleships and many cruisers had been sunk by submarine mines.

Mr. Adams taking advantage of the latitude of general debate, spoke on his bill to establish a whipping post in the District of Columbia, for wife beaters.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Attempt at Bribery.

Sensational charges of attempts to bribe him and a general denunciation of the "Old Dominion Telegraph Company" were the features of State's Attorney Mackey's efforts to force a trial in the case of the St. Asaph pool room people in the Circuit Court of the county yesterday. The men are charged with setting up a gaming table. The indictments were found under the code which provides that offenses charged therein may be tried by the Circuit Court. In full the presentments charge the men with "setting up a gaming table of the like kind as keno, under the denomination of bookmaking on horse races, and of the like kind as faro and of the like kind as keno and faro, under the denomination of commission betting on horse races." The question raised by the term "of the like kind" is to be determined by the jury.

When the case was called by Judge Nicol Wednesday Col. Smith and Messrs. Burke and Carlin, attorneys for the defense, asked for a postponement until the next session of the court. They declared the matter of the charge to be a surprise to them, and claimed that they had not had time to prepare their defense. Mr. Mackey objected to a postponement or continuance of the case. "You have been expecting this thing for months," he said. "It's your business to expect it. Your are defending a fraudulent concern—a telegraph company that never owned a pole nor a wire, that never even paid taxes on such property. You are defending a fake athletic association that has never existed. You are defending an alleged gentleman's driving park, when no one has ever seen either the gentlemen or the driving park. Nothing about the indictment is a surprise to you. You expect, one at every session of this court. There isn't any decision on gambling made that you do not know by heart, and could if necessary set to music. The Old Dominion Telegraph Company is a fake, composed only of gamblers and black-mailers.

Mr. Mackey in continuing claimed that he had recently been approached on two separate occasions by emissarries of the St. Asaph people, who attempted to bribe him to drop the case against St. Asaph, and to enter proceedings against the Virginia Telegraph Company, the pool room recently started by John Nelson in Jackson City. "I had witnesses concealed in the room when James Pumfrey, an emissary, attempted to bribe me, and before these witnesses I forced him to confess that he had attempted a bribe," continued Attorney Mackey. "I shall, in a short while, have him indicted for attempting to bribe a public officer." Among the allurements held out, he said, was a handsome monetary consideration, a seat in the State legislature, the State Senate or other political honors. Mr. Mackey stated that he had taken steps to prosecute the man for bribery under the laws of the District of Columbia. Attorneys for the defendant then entered a demurrer asking that the case be postponed until witnesses living in other cities could be summoned. The demurrer was refused, a postponement of one day being granted the attorneys for the defense in which to prepare their case.

Mr. Burke termed the proceedings an anomaly at law, requiring time for preparation, for which he asked. He referred to the continued efforts of Mr. Mackey against the pool rooms at St. Asaph as persecution, asking why the State's attorney did not proceed against "another notorious resort" in the county.

Judge Nicol at once interrupted: "I wish you would say," he stated, "what notorious place it is. I want to know something about it."

Mr. Burke said he referred to the so called Virginia Telegraph Company, which he understood to be operating a pool room at Jackson City such as is conducted at St. Asaph. He wondered why the Commonwealth's Attorney, with his intense zeal, his bloodhound tenacity, had not prosecuted the Jackson City enterprise.

This brought forth a reply from Mr. Mackey, in which occurred his denunciation of the St. Asaph poolroom. He was well aware, he said, of the nature of the business being done at the new place at Jackson City. He charged that gambling was conducted there and asserted that the place was a counterpart of St. Asaph. But, concluding, he announced his policy to be to get rid of the establishment at St. Asaph and then to proceed against that at Jackson City.

In the discussion Mr. Burke declared that if his side had to enter the trial without further preparation, some ruling might be made which would not stand test at the Court of Appeals, but Judge Nicol admonished the attorney not to worry himself about the court in that respect.

Counsel for the defense were required to present affidavits to support their petition for a continuance. The court set today for the hearing of the demurrer to the indictments, which they entered.

Toward the latter part of the arguments interest in the proceedings was intensified by an invitation from Col. Smith, one of the lawyers for the defense, to Mr. Mackey to go outside the court room, and the direction of Judge Nicol to the sheriff to prevent trouble between the two attorneys.

The tilt between Mr. Mackey and Col. Smith followed a complimentary reference by Col. Smith to the ability of the author of Minor's Institutes, from which he was reading an extract. He referred to him as a lawyer who knew the amenities which should prevail among gentlemen, to which Mr. Mackey said, "And he wasn't ashamed of his clients." Col. Smith construed the remark to indicate that he was ashamed of his clients. Before the adjournment the breach between the two attorneys was repaired and they left the courthouse on friendly terms.

It was stated last night that the effort to bribe Mr. Mackey had been called to to the attention of Morgan H. Beach, United States attorney for the District of Columbia, but that there is no provision of law by which the courts of the District, which are Federal courts, can punish for an attempt to bribe a State officer.

The surface of the river is covered with ice which is kept on the move by steamers passing up and down.

School Board.

The monthly meeting of the City School Board was held last night, the chairman, Capt. Bryant, presiding.

Several bills for supplies and repairs were ordered to be paid.

The committee on schoolhouses and furniture reported that a number of minor repairs to the building had been made during the past month.

The Superintendent reported that the schools had been reopened after the holidays and were all in successful operation.

The resignation of Mr. T. J. Fannon, as a trustee from the Fourth ward, was received and accepted.

The application of the principal of Lee School for new furniture, which had been referred to the committee on schoolhouses and furniture, was returned with the report that the new furniture asked for is desirable, but in the present state of the finances of the board inadvisable. The report was laid over till the next meeting.

In reference to the resolution of the City Council asking to be informed as to the additional amount of money that would be required to enable the schools to continue for ten months, the finance committee reported that about $1,900 would be necessary, but as the schools did not open till the middle of September, a ten months' session would run them till the middle of July, which would be inexpedient. The committee reported, however, that any additional appropriation made by Council could be used to extend the session till the last of June and in making repairs to the school buildings The report was adopted and ordered to be communicated to the City Council.

U. S. Court.

[Judge Edmund Waddill, jr., presiding.]

Jos. Bartini, indicted for pension fraud; jury and verdict of not guilty.

Maria Martin, a colored girl, indicted for stealing a watch at Rosslyn; jury and verdict of guilty and, on account of her having been confined in jail for some time, she was sentenced to serve a further term of five days in the city jail.

Simon P. Smith, of Leesburg, indicted for embezzling money from letters; sentenced to serve one year in the government penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga.

Lewis Smith, colored, indicted for stealing money from letters in Fredericsburg; sentenced to serve one year and one day in the government penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga.

The grand jury returned not true bills against Robert L. Schmesbeck and Alfred Mellor, indicted for forging writings for the purpose of defrauding the government. These were the cases in which witnesses were summoned from Texas, and grew out of the charge that the men had personated officers who took part in the maneuvers at Manassas last fall and secured officers' pay.

The grand jury was then adjourned for the term.

Court adjourned till tomorrow.

Believed to Be Yeggmen.

The United States Court in session in this city today indicted several men who are charged with various offenses against the government, including the robbery of the postoffice at Orange and Manassas, stealing money from a letter, &c. It is believed that some of the accused are members of a gang which have for some time been operating in this vicinity, and recently made their headquarters in this city. It was stated Wednesday that one of the Yeggman gang had been in Alexandria and was arrested for an alleged assault. Attention was also directed to the assertion made by parties in Baltimore when members of the gang were taken to that city recently to the effect that the man who shot John Ryan was one of the party. It will be remembered that at that time several suspicious men were living here, and that a woman who was identified with the gang was arrested and fined $100 by Mayor Simpson for contumacy, it being certain that she knew the name of Ryan's assailant. Members of this gang committed certain robberies in Maryland recently.

Opera House Last Light.

J. C. Lewis and his company of comedians appeared at the Opera House last night in the four-act comedy-drama "Si Plunkard," a large audience greeting the company. The drama, which deals with farm life, is a well-written one, and was greatly enjoyed. The characters of the play were in excellent hands, and were portrayed in a most creditable manner. Mr. Lewis played the part of Si Plunkard (a prosperous farmer) in a manner creditable to anyone. J. F. Mack, Alf Bruce, Elfie De Rock and Marion Lewis rendered excellent support. The specialties were of a refined and up-to-date nature, and were vigorously applauded. A feature of the show was the band and orchestra, which were composed of competent musicians. "Si Plunkard" has played here before and has always been appreciated, and always will be. The next attraction will be "The Great Western Train Robbery."

Saturday, 14th, West Fall's Church, 2 p. m.; Tuesday, 17th, Burke Station, 11 a. m.; Thursday 19th, Springfield, 2 p. m.; Saturday, 21st East Falls Church, 2 p. m.; Tuesday, 24th, Cloud's Mill, 11 a. m.; Thursday, 26th, Kennels, 2 p. m.; Saturday, 28th, Shooter's Hill, 2 p. m.; Tuesday, 31st, Broadwater's Gate, 11 a. m. Mr. Courtland H. Smith is M. F. H.

The Water Supply.

As will be seen by a notice elsewhere in the Gazette, the larger of the two mains that supply water to this city will be cut off Saturday evening about 6 o'clock while certain connections are being made with the new mains recently laid around the new railroad work near the reservoir. Although the supply will be reduced it will not be entirely cut off from the city, as the ten inch main will remain intact. Still it is suggested that consumers supply themselves with a sufficient quantity of water in vessels to last a day.

The Weather.

The weather today has been rainy, raw and disagreeable. The streets and pavements were for the most part encased in ice and pedestrians picked their paths with caution. Several persons slipped and fell, but, so far as known, none received serious injury.

Circuit Court for the County.

[Judge C. E. Nicol presiding.]

Proceedings were continued yesterday until today in the case against Lewis Murdock and the Hiawatha Social Club, of which Murdock is an alleged bartender, charging them with selling liquor without license. Attorneys for the defense offered a demurrer, in which they claimed that Lewis Murdock, being employed in the capacity as bartender of the club, is not liable. The indictment against the Hiawatha Social Club, the defense declared to be unwarranted. The organization being a social club, the defense claimed, was not forced to procure a license. "The indictment," said Mr. Burke, "does not allege a specific offense." In reply, Commonwealth's Attorney Mackey described the club as a fake organization, and claimed that liquor was sold to any person, regardless of identity, on a regular retail scale. The club, he claimed, was not a legal, bona fide organization, and that both the alleged social club and Lewis Murdock were guilty of unlawfully selling liquor without license. The demurrer in the Hiawatha Club was sustained and the case dismissed. The demurrer filed in the case of Louis Murdock was overruled by Judge Nicol, who held that the indictment was good. Pleas were filed and the case called for trial before the St. Asaph pool room case comes up. A jury was empanelled and the case was in progress when this report closed.

Personal.

After the war he was employed for a number of years in the office of the Virginia Midland (now Southern) Railway at Alexandria.—[Fairfax Herald.

The Alexandria Gazette has just completed its one hundred and fifth volume, having with a few intervals caused by war and fires appeared daily for over a century. It is one of the few publications in the country that have been published continuously for 100 years. For generations it has been a favorite in Eastern Virginia.—[Baltimore Sun.

NOTICE TO WATER TAKERS.

Owing to a change being made in the supply pipes near the reservoir, the water will be turned off the twenty-inch main at six o'clock SATURDAY EVENING, January 7. This will reduces the pressure, but will not cut off the supply of water to consumers in Alexandria. This inconvenience may continue for two days and is occasioned by the railroad improvements being made where the line crosses the company's pipes near the reservoir. GEORGE UHLER, Secretary.

Do Not Suppress a Cough.

When you have a cough do not try to suppress it, but remove the cause. The cough is only a sympton of some disease, and the disease is what you should cure, then the cough will stop of itself. The most common cause of coughing is a cold. Anodynes will promptly suppress the cough, and preparations containing chloroform, opium, etc., are used for that purpose, but they do not cure the cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy on the other hand does not suppress the cough, but relieves it by removing from the throat and lungs the mucus which obstructed the breathing and allaying the irritation and tickling in the throat. It also opens the secretions and effectually and permanently cures the cold as well as the cough. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

PRE-INVENTORY SALE

At Rosenfeld's.

We spend very little money in telling how nice we are, or how good our merchandise is.

All this is for you to judge, self praise is an abuse of words, then, too, the comparison is right before you. Most every store is exploiting their January sale this week, and you will look around coming here and to many other stores or go to Washington.

We rely on your judgment more than anything else; if it does not pronounce our stock the best and our prices the lowest from our view point of course, your judgment will be wrong.

Women who look for quality with economy in price will not miss this sale.

All our goods are marked in plain figures. We don't tell you this price of dress goods was $1.50, now it is 75c; this blanket was $5, now it is $2.50; or this tailor-made suit was $20, now $10. But you can see for yourself how much it was by looking on the ticket and how much you save.

Accident to Bridal Couple.

The fashionable social event of the season in Knowlton Township, near Washington, N. J., a few days ago, was the wedding of Jay J. Harting and Miss Minnie Dunfield on New Year's Day. Everything was lovely until the moment arrived when the happy couple took their departure amid a shower of rice and old shoes. Life's stormy journey began then. Bundled up in comfortable robes the newly married couple started in a sleigh for the Lackawanna station at Portland. Just what happened cannot be told, because the living couple won't tell. The bridegroom says he neglected the reins and his friends say he had the lines wrapped around the whip socket. At any rate the horse took advantage of the interesting situation and ran away. The bride failed to be comforted by the reassuring words of the bridegroom, and with a scream leaped out of the sleigh. A broken shoulder of the bride stopped the wedding trip and physicians are busy now endeavoring to prevent a postponement of the reception to be given by the bridegroom's parents tomorrow evening.

Brutally Tortured.

A case came to light that for persistent and unmerciful torture has perhaps never been equaled. Joe Golobick, of Colusa, Calif, writes: "For 15 years I endured insufferable pain from Rheumatism and nothing relieved me though I tried everything known. I came across Electric Bitters and it's the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles of it completely cured me." Just as good for Liver and Kidney troubles and general debility. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarhoea Remedy.

The uniform success of this remedy has made it the most popular preparation in use for bowel complaints. It is everywhere recognized as the one remedy that can always be depended upon and that is pleasant to take. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Tonic to the System,

For liver troubles and constipation there is nothing better than DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little Pills. They do not weaken the stomach. Their action upon the system is mild, pleasant and harmless. Bob Moore, of LaFayette, Ind., says: "No use talking, DeWitt's Little Early Risers do their work. All other pills I have used gripe and make me sick in the stomach and never cured me. Dewitt's Little Early Risers proved to be the long sought relief. They are simply perfect." Persons traveling find Little Early Risers the most reliable remedy to carry with them. Sold by all druggists.
